Miss Helen Hogeboom will entertain a few guests at luncheon next Wednesday in the Mills tea room for Miss Margaret Lovell, of New York, who is spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lovell.

Frocks of soft lustrous taffetas, skirts of a fancy weave with blouse or basque in plain color are featured as models designed especially for street wear. A touch of color is added to this dress of black and white striped and plain black taffetas in the tiny pink roses that tip the points of the basque peplum.

Miss Katherine Wood, instructor in piano in the College of the Sisters of Bethany, for some years past, has resigned, and will take charge of the music department in St. Mary's Hall, Fairbault, Minn., in the fall. After the close of school this spring she will go to Lisbon in the White Mountains to study with Miss Katherine Goodson, a concert pianist.

Miss Wood holds a prominent place in musical circles in Topeka, and is a member of the Ladies' Music club. At a business meeting of the Ladies' Music club Thursday afternoon, the following officers were chosen: Mrs. Charles S. Gleed, president (re-elected); Mrs. Frank P. MacLennan, vice president; Mrs. W. B. Swan, secretary; Mrs. S. J. Hodgins, treasurer; Mrs. George H. Allen, federation secretary. The members of the program committee are: Mrs. Allen, Miss Katherine Wood and Miss Helen Hogeboom.

The Portia club will have a banquet at the Manspeaker Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. P. Shafter, president of the club, will be toastmistress, and responses will be made by Mrs. Charles Curtis, Mr. E. G. Foster and Mr. Shafter.

The Sigma Kappa sorority of the state university had a banquet and entertainment Thursday night at the chapter house. The toastmaster was the idea of the five petals of the violet, the sorority flower. One of the toasts of the evening was given by Miss Martin, of Topeka, who is attending the university, and is a member of the Sigma Kappa.

The annual banquet of the law school of Washburn college will be held Saturday night at the First Presbyterian church. There will be responses to toasts by students chosen by the classes, and an outside speaker for each class. The toastmaster will be former Justice A. W. Benson, who is now a member of the faculty of the law school, and a popular instructor and adviser among the students. The company will include the members of the school, the faculty, the alumni, members of the bar, state officials, and other guests.

Justice Henry F. Mason will represent the seniors, and will speak to the toast "The End to Be Obtained," and Dr. E. C. Green, of the senior class, will speak on "Crossing the Bar." The juniors will be represented by Mr. Clad Hamilton, whose subject will be "The War and Lawyers," and Mr. William Burnett will speak on "My First Year's Practice." Major A. M. Harvey will speak for the freshmen on "The Troubles of Life," and Mr. Logan will have for his subject "Law in Its Infancy." Mr. C. J. Evans will represent the faculty, having for his subject "Philosophy and Practice." William Smith, of Valley Falls, representing the alumni, will have for his subject, "The Glories of a Great Profession."

The banquet will be served at 7 o'clock. Miss Kathryn Albaugh went to Horton today, where she will give a program for dramatic readings at a party to be given by Mrs. C. A. Sauter. The party is to be a luncheon, with the entertainment following.

Miss Albaugh will give an enter-

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee. Adv.

SOCIETY

The marriage of Miss Katherine Kellam and Mr. George Burpee, whose engagement was announced some months ago, will be solemnized early in June, probably Wednesday, the second, in New York. The wedding will be quietly celebrated in a little chapel in the city of New York, and only relatives will be present.

Miss Kellam is a daughter of Mrs. T. J. Kellam. Her brother, Mr. Kurtz Kellam, who will attend the wedding, will give her in marriage. Mrs. Kellam and Miss Kellam have been living in New York recently, after their return from a residence of a year or two abroad. The Kellam home was formerly in Topeka.

Mr. Burpee and his bride will make their home in New York, where Mr. Burpee has a position as civil engineer with the Westinghouse-Churchill Engineering company.

Miss Helen McClintock gave a party this afternoon for the children who are pupils in the Montessori Kindergarten which she has been conducting this year. The affair is the closing day event of the school year for the little people of the kindergarten. Miss McClintock was assisted by Miss Lulu McKee.

Mrs. Clement Smith and her sister, Mrs. B. T. Welch, will give an informal afternoon at bridge Saturday afternoon, complimentary to Miss Portia Penwell, whose marriage to Mr. John Stapel of Rock Port, Mo., will be solemnized June 9. There will be guests for four tables.

Miss Florence Davis will entertain for Miss Penwell soon but the date for the party has not been arranged. Mrs. E. E. Fisher will also be hostess at a pre-nuptial party for Miss Penwell.

Miss Daisy Neil entertained her bridge club Thursday afternoon. Guests and substitutes were: Mrs. Thomas C. Wood of Chicago, who is visiting her father, Mr. W. G. Bailey; Mrs. W. C. Ball of Webb City, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.

S. Dean; Mrs. George Mitchell, Miss Helen Estey and Miss Orah Money-penny.

Miss Elizabeth Guame gave a piano recital Wednesday night in MacVicar chapel, at Washburn college. She graduated from the fine arts department of the college this year, and the musical was her graduating recital. She finished the fine arts course in three years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Guame of Onaga, Kansas.

Miss Elizabeth Guame, who gave her graduating recital Wednesday night at Washburn college.

The members on the program showed technical skill, and the Technicowsky concerto proved her musical ability. It was artistically played. Miss Guame is a member of the Sigma Alpha Iota sorority of Washburn, and has been prominent in social affairs at the school. She expects to teach during the summer. The ushers at the recital were: Miss Katherine Sentz, Miss Beatrice Clifton, Miss Nelle Dickerson and Miss Grace Rickenbacher. Out of town guests who attended the musical were: Miss Edith Crumbacher, Miss Hazel Gurtler, Miss Anna Becker, Miss Nita McBride, all of Onaga, and Miss Mamie Sherlock of Seneca.

The wives of the members of the Rotary club will give a banquet at Mills Tea room Thursday evening for their husbands. The members of the committee in charge of the arrangements are: Mrs. F. A. Koester, chairman; Mrs. Frank Whitmore, Mrs. C. B. Van Horn, Mrs. George Godfrey Moore, Mrs. George Hart, Mrs. A. J. Carruth, Jr.

Mrs. John S. Dawson has returned from Kansas City, where she attended the wedding of Miss Dorothea Arringdale and Mr. Harry Dunneough Bartlett, which took place at the Gables, the suburban home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Justus De Courcy, and Mr. De Courcy Saturday night. The Rev. George Hamilton Combs read the service. The bride's gown was of ivory lace and tulle, draped with orange blossoms, and she wore a tulle veil the length of her contour. Her bouquet was of bride's roses and sweet peas. The ceremony was followed by a reception for a hundred guests.

The bride is a cousin of Dr. H. W. Roby of Topeka, and she has occasionally visited Dr. and Mrs. Roby. Her sister, Mrs. David Wilson of Stockton, Mo., has returned recently to her home after a visit at the Roby home. Mrs. Dawson has been a friend of the bride's people since her girlhood.

The annual field day picnic of Western Sorosis will not be held Saturday, as previously planned. The picnic has been postponed one week, and will be given Saturday, June 5, at the country home of Mrs. D. H. Forbes.

Miss Frankie Haskell and Miss Helen Haskell will give a dinner and supper party tonight at 6 o'clock at their home in Fifth and Lincoln streets. Entertainment will be given by Douglas, whose marriage to Mr. Walter Thompson will take place early in June. The guests will be: Miss Douglas, Miss Ruth Kelly, Miss May Tomlinson, Miss Katherine Stanley, Miss Helen Douglas and Miss Mona Thomas.

The Social Service club will not have its meeting Monday, May 31, on account of Decoration Day. The meeting will be held Monday, June 7, at the home of Mrs. Robert Stewart, 965 Topeka avenue, promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

A number of the members of the Supreme chapter of the Delta Sigma Delta fraternity gave their dinner at the National hotel in honor of Dr. F. A.
